Aug 23, When the United States entered World War II, however, this defense budget spiked to a massive 41% of the country's GDP or $ billion. Even that much money wasn't enough to keep America at peak performance on all fronts. It needed more from the people. That's where war bonds, or "liberty bonds," come into play.

The real reasons for the war In Iraq--control of all pricing and policies, expansion of US power, establishment of US bases in the strategic Middle East, defense of Israel--were kept hidden from the American people/5(3).

The reality in Iraq is (1) the establishment of an American puppet regime that will enable the US to have permanent military bases; (2) the shameful imposition of a basically American drafted Constitution under foreign occupation; (3) the promotion of a corporate-privatization that most suits American business and state interests; (4) the activation of a divide-and-rule policy that has created terrible sectarian .
